Title

Corporate Brand Development Specialist

How long have you been with CPIBN?

1 year

What do you like most about your job?

Writing our e-newsletter, Connections. It's a way to showcase our staff and partners' expertise while also providing fun changes and happenings in the Buffalo community. I also love coming up with new and creative ways to help enhance our company visibility on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram. (Find us at @CPIBN!)

Do you belong to any community groups or organizations?

Member of BN360 and the Buffalo Niagara Partnership New Leaders Program.

When you were a child, what did you want to be when you grew up?

A princess. Although, becoming a teacher was a fallback option.

What was your first job?

Running the admissions and concessions counters at a local basketball center during high school.

Favorite quote?

"My courage always rises with every attempt to intimidate me." Jane Austen, Pride and Prejudice

What do you do to relax in your spare time?

Read, DIY interior decorating, drink wine on the front porch (usually while reading), and spend time with friends, family, and our dogs.

If you could have any career (talent, education not required) what would it be and why?

Interior Designer or a backup singer for Adele.

People would be surprised if they knew:

I've been playing tennis for 20+ years, I'm capable of applying a Will & Grace quote to most real life situations, and I collect various editions of Pride and Prejudice, hence a dog named Mr. Darcy.

What is your favorite sports team/athlete?

Team: Boston Bruins

Athlete: Roger Federer or Pete Sampras

If you could be a Crayola crayon color, what would you be?

Navy with gold glitter.
