Title

Director of Search Services

How long have you been with CPIBN?

6 years

What would people never guess you do in your role?

I do a lot of research to better understand my clients' requirements and my candidates' unique talent/skillset.

What is the biggest misconception about your job?

That it is easy to fill jobs.

What do you like most about your job?

Working with many different companies and candidates with diverse backgrounds. It's very rewarding when you identify the ideal candidate for a client.

Do you belong to any community groups or organizations?

I'm involved with the Buffalo Niagara Human Resources Association, and the Buffalo Women's Partnership. I'm also a Eucharistic Minister to nursing homes and the homebound, and I've served as a Board member at my church.

Favorite place?

Florence, Italy – I would love to have a home there one day.

Favorite quote?

Laughter is the key to a long and lasting life; he who laughs, lasts!

What do you do to relax in your spare time?

Walk and play with my dog, Bo, read, exercise, travel, and spend time with my family and friends.

Favorite thing to do in Buffalo?

Go to concerts and enjoy the beautiful waterfront.

Who has inspired your life the most?

My mother is a remarkable human being, and I'm fortunate to still have her in my life – she is 91 years old, and is still full of fun and life!

If you could be a Crayola crayon color, what would you be?

Yellow – my favorite color.
